No one but the Old Man—the fabled, White and Blue. With the stars of a Union, and the stars of a Union. When blood bought the Union, your valor must save.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, AUG. 28, 1861.

A Secession movement in Benton County.

On Sunday last Rev. M. B. Starr preached a sermon in Monroe, Benton County, in which he referred to the present condition of the country, and the duty of good citizens to sustain the Government. This did not suit some secessionists about, and they went to work to break up the meeting. Dr. Stanton and other secessionists, having made themselves drunk, led in the affair. Dr. S. appeared at the church, about for Jeff. Davis, but not being interfered with, he and others attempted to pull down the American flag from the Liberty Pole. Here the citizens interfered, and a general fight ensued in which the secessionists came off second best. Stanton having received several cuts with a knife. We notice that the secession paper at Corvallis says that this attack upon a religious meeting and upon the American flag, was caused by an American Minister daring to preach in favor of supporting the American Union and Government, and advises that this shall be done no more. We just say that it will be done, and if he and his party wish to inaugurate the reign of blood, Rev. O. Fisher threatened, let them go ahead. We are as well prepared for that contest in Oregon as we ever shall be. We wonder that Dr. Stanton was not shot dead when he undertook to desecrate the American flag.

Some evidence of Sanity.

Our neighbor of the Advertiser has been greatly behind the times. He has now come to the conclusion that the determination of the government is to put down rebellion—to see that the flag of the Stars and Stripes flows over all the forts and custom-houses and arsenals and mints of the Republic, from the Rio Grande to the St. Croix, and from the Atlantic to the Pacific coast—and if the Southern States—which no man believes under these circumstances, refuses to take their proper position in the Union of States, we believe in governing them as we now govern the Territories. That necessity will not occur. When rebellion is crushed out, the Union element will appear, rejoicing that the rebellion is crushed out. We are glad that even at this late moment to see the Advertiser exhibiting some evidence of returning sanity.

"Got a Situation."

Gen. Stevens always professed to be a Union man. Having failed in obtaining the nomination of Delegate for Washington Territory, he lost no time in making a journey to Washington and offering his services to government in the present war for sustaining the Union. This was a patriotic act. He was willing to prove the truth of his professions, if necessary, by the sacrifice of his life. His offer of his services was accepted. He was given the appointment of Colonel. He will at once go into active service. He is a military man, was educated at West Point, and an officer of remarkable personal energy. We shall have good accounts from him. The Advertiser cheerfully says of Gov. Stevens, he's "got a situation!" True, he has—and that situation is on the side of his country.

ANOTHER DEFAULTING SECESSIONIST.—The bondsmen of John T. Crenshaw, late Postmaster at Nevada, but now rebel captain under Chas. Jackson, have been notified that that distinguished patriot owes the Department $119.69. Surely the way of Secession transgressors is becoming easy, where there is anything to steal.

GARIBOLDI COMING TO AMERICA.—A New York correspondent gives the following brief paragraph, which if true is of prodigious significance. Would to Heaven it is true:

In a letter recently written by Garibaldi to a friend in this city, he says that inasmuch as there is now no war in Italy, he has thought of coming to America to offer his services in the war of freedom.

Will England risk a War to get Our Cotton?

The Alla thus answers this question: "So far from joining in the belief of the English manufacturers' great necessities, we believe they are universally rejoicing at the opportunity afforded them to work their old stocks and old styles of manufactured goods which had accumulated in every market in the world, and that the English Ministry are industriously using the opportunity of building up cotton supplies from their own colonies, which, while securing future independence from American supplies, will give a greater and more profitable employment to her shipping interests. Buxton, who represents a large and influential body of British taxpayers, takes this view of the subject, and which, we doubt not, will be the final view of the Government. War with the North to obtain slave-grown cotton will not be popular with Buxton. Half of the mass of England's other manufacturers, who now find in the Northern and Western States their best customers. War not only checks this demand, but takes it away forever. A foreign war would do more to make the Northern States independent of foreign supplies than ten years of high tariff; and if the cotton supply for Great Britain is to be viewed wholly in the dollar-and-cent point of view, in which Southern politicians are so fond of placing it, we think the cost of obtaining the article in the way they propose will be found sufficiently large to hinder it. 'Dixie,' so far from being pulled out of her difficulty by the strain on cotton, is, in each month the war is prolonged, adding new energy to its production in other lands, and making the certainty greater that its value and profit is to be far less in the future than in the past. Aside from these domestic reasons, their are foreign reasons why England will not risk a war with the United States: The close of such a war would find her commerce crippled. France in possession of Syria and Egypt, and Russia of Constantinople—events of sufficient magnitude to make even John Bull hesitate, were there no domestic reasons pressing."

Kentucky Election.

The St. Louis Express of August 6th, according to the Sacramento Bee, contains a sprinkling of election news from Kentucky. It does not appear that the disasters at Manassas have lessened the strength of the Union party in Kentucky. On the contrary, it seems to be increasing in strength. The election took place on the 4th inst. The St. Louis Express says:

"The few returns from the Kentucky election received last night are highly satisfactory. The Union majority in Louisville is estimated at 2,000, and in Jefferson county at 1,000. Harvey, of the Louisville Democrat, is elected to the Legislature by over 900 majority over ex-Senator Merritt. In Fayette county, Buckner (Union) is elected over James B. Clay by 400 to 600 majority. In Franklin county, Richard C. Anderson (a nephew of Colonel Anderson, of Fort Sumter celebrity), is elected by 400 to 400 majority. R. W. Jacobs (Union) is elected in Oldham county. These returns show Union majorities considerably larger than those obtained at the special Congressional election."

It has been well said, that "to know our disease is half our cure." The Advertiser here has espoused the cause of M'Connell, the Secession candidate for Governor of California. M'Connell, in an electioneering speech at Sacramento, said, that he "was no Union savor, but he might venture to advance some suggestions in which every liver of the Union must agree with him. The pillars of the temple had fallen; how might they be re-constructed?" It is very true that M'Connell is "no Union savor," and in being no Union savor he faithfully represents the party of the Portland Advertiser. That party does not desire to save the Union; its object is to dissolve the Union, and M'Connell is lending his aid to enable it to accomplish that end. His suggestions are that the war shall be opposed—and peace secured by the recognition of the Southern Confederacy, as demanded by the Jeff Davis conspirators. On our side M'Connell is no Union savor; he is for dividing the Union, as are those most active in his support, in California and Oregon.

Lancaster of Washington Territory, who was defeated at the Vancouver Democratic Convention for the nomination of Delegate when he came to vote, tore off the head of his ticket, the motto, "the Union must and shall be preserved." This was done publicly, so we learn from the Argus. This Lancaster is an admirer of the Portland Advertiser, and it is said does some writing for that paper.

It is rumored that the Pennsylvania Fire company, No. 12, of San Francisco, proposes to sell both their engines and equip a regiment of Infantry, to be sent to Washington at the expense of the company.

Progress of the Great Rebellion.

Special Dispatch to the Oregonian.

ST. LOUIS DATES TO AUGUST 17th.

YEREA, August 28, 7 P. M., 1861.
The following is from the Sacramento Union Extra:

DRY CREEK, ST. LOUIS, Aug. 23.
The Pony, with 5000 lbs. of St. Louis to August 16th, arrived this morning at eight o'clock.

SA. LOUIS, Aug. 17, via Center Station, 280 miles West of Fort Kearney.
LA POINTE, Aug. 12.—A bold attempt was made to throw a freight train, going East, off the track of the railroad, one mile above here, by placing a mine and tie on the track.

SANK KEEL, Ill., Aug. 12.—A destructive fire occurred here yesterday morning, doing $25,000 damage—mostly insured.

The President's health is excellent. He will leave Washington this year.

The War Department have been busy since the adjournment of Congress, in preparing for the distribution of the laws recently enacted for the regular Army.

Nearly all the commissions for the officers already provided for by the late increase of the Army, have been made out. The labor has been great.

BANGOR, Maine, Aug. 12.—At one o'clock this morning, the office of the Bangor Democrat, Seleson's, was "burned out" during the alarm of fire. A crowd entered the office and cleared it of every thing, and burned the contents in the street. The office was unharmed.

SA. LOUIS, Aug. 12.—A number of the most distinguished army officers of Europe, particularly from England and France, have tendered their services to the U. States, but it is not known that they will be accepted.

Gen. Robert Anderson is here and in poor health.

Several weeks ago, one of our consuls abroad expressed the opinion that Garibaldi would visit this country, and command a contingent of Italian forces if the President of this government would indicate that his services were needed. The President authorized parties to express to him his gratification it would afford the President to witness his return to the U. States, and see him at the head of a column of volunteers.

Another Government clerk, Alexander H. Flowers, was arrested yesterday en route for Richmond in the charge of being a spy.

FOURNESS, ME, Aug. 12.—To day a large number of troops arrived from Norfolk, with 22 released prisoners. They were mostly surgeons, captured at Ball's Bluff.

NEW YORK, Aug. 12.—The brig Sea Foam from Curacao, privateer Sumter, arrived there July 10th, and was allowed by a permit to land and rest against remonstrance of the U. S. consul. She left on the 24th. The crew had liberty to go ashore and raised the Union flag.

Brig Gen. Fox reported the feeling at Curacao was against the admittance of the Sumter. Officers of the Spanish men-of-war in the harbor refused to associate with the Sumter's officers.

The Condado is momentarily expected, having been ordered to return to reinforce the blockading fleet.

The Tribune publishes a proclamation for a national fast on the last Thursday of Sept., signed by the President.

A letter from Minister Flagg says Garibaldi said: "If the war is for freedom I am with you with 20,000 men."

BOSTON, Aug. 12th.—The following instructions have been given by the Bank Committee, that the judgment of the gentlemen assembled at the banks and bankers of Boston, State of Massachusetts and their people are prepared to give, willing and determined to do all in their power by furnishing men and money to the utmost extent of their ability, now, hereafter and forever.

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 11th.—The following official report of the fight near Springfield, Mo., is forwarded by telegraph. Gen. Lyon's Aid to Camp.

Gen. Lyon, in the column under Gen. Seigel and Maj. Sturges of the cavalry, made an attack at 6 o'clock, Aug. 10, 9 miles south of Springfield. The engagement was severe. Our loss is killed and wounded, 800.

Gen. Lyon was killed in this charge, at the head of the column.

Our force was 8,000, including 2,000 Home Guards.

Master roll taken from the enemy gives the strength at 22,000, including 8 regiments from Tennessee, Missouri, Louisiana, with Texas rangers, Cherokees and half-breeds. Their loss is reported heavy, including Geja, McCulloch and Pike. This statement is corroborated by tele. messengers. Their tents and wagons were destroyed in the action.

Gen. Seigel left one gun on the field, and retreated to Springfield with a large number of prisoners. At 3 A. M., 11th, continued his retreat to Rolla, bringing off his brigade train, and $25,000 in specie from the Springfield bank.

Detailed accounts of this fight will go to California by this mail.

LOUISVILLE, Aug. 13.—A dispatch from Richmond says: "A land-slide occurred Sunday night, about 17 miles from Richmond, on the Manassas Railroad. Eight cars of soldiers were smashed and scattered to pieces. Companies from Nashville were the principal sufferers."

NEW YORK, Aug. 13th.—Three vessels under British flags were refused clearance at the custom house.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 13th.—Gen. Wool has been ordered to Fort Monroe, where he will assume command, vice Gen. Butler.

Gen. Beale will remain here some days, and then will be called to more active duty.

Since Gen. McClellan came here the occupation of sensation newspapers is gone.

Reports are cut down to facts, and facts are not permitted to be used.

Capt. Fox, assistant Secretary of the Navy, reports that he has engaged 100 vessels for the U. S. Government for the enforcement of the laws.

The rebel Congress has voted on the imprisonment or expulsion of all Union men.

It is said the rebels are in strong force. Edward's Ferry, 80 miles from here, and well supplied with artillery.

Gen. Pillow has broken up his camp at New Madrid, and gone to Memphis. The movement is supposed to be on account of active preparation at Cairo of Col. Fremont.

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 17th.—The provost marshal has issued stringent orders against carrying concealed weapons by the citizens, and forbids sales except by special permit.

The Portland passengers by the stage, representing the rail to be good, the stations not so good, and the journey not very pleasant, the traveling about 100 miles a day, the fare comfortable, and the trip from St. Louis to Salt Lake occupying ten days.

The London correspondent of the Chicago Herald writes that "the Confederate sympathizers at Paris are out of money. They have left the Hotel de Louvre for want of money."

It was recently stated that General Sumner will send a thousand stand of arms for war to New York by the steamer of the 21st.

Exporters continue to buy freely of flour at $4.25 to $4.37; for superior extra, $5.00 to $5.50; barley for feed purposes, 8 to 9; choice new, 9 to 10; sides of 4,000 lbs prime and brewing sold at $4.00; 1,700 sds resold at $1.

Oregon flour, extra superfine, was selling in San Francisco at $5.00; wheat at $1.30 to $1.45.

Late Pony advices from New York say that breadstuffs were active and buoyant, with a slight advance. A small sale of California white wheat has been made at $1.10 a bushel. Also 200 bales California medium wool at 23c; and 161 bales to private.
